Upon motion by Councilman Plummer, seconded by Councilman Maness, the Council passed the following resolution and authorized the Mayor and City Clerk to sign the resolution:

"WHEREAS Eutaw Shopping Center, Inc., being then the owner of certain land in the City of Fayetteville, North Carolina, executed two certain easements duly recorded respectively in Book 662, Page 408, and Book 702, Page 398, Cumberland County, N. C. Registry, which easements granted to the City of Fayetteville the right to construct sewer and water lines over a described portion of said land:

AND WHEREAS, further, since the time of the granting of said easements it has been discovered by the City of Fayetteville that, properly to serve said land, and to serve the best interest of the City of Fayetteville, it is necessary to have routes over said land, different from the originally intended routes;

AND WHEREAS Eutaw Shopping Center, Inc., the present owner of said land, has duly granted to the City of Fayetteville, such presently necessary easements over the correct and presently indicated portions of said land,

AND WHEREAS part of the consideration for the granting, of such presently needed easement routes was that said unneeded easements described above and recorded as stated above, should be cancelled and withdrawn;

NOW, THEREFORE, Be it resolved by the City Council of the City of Fayetteville at its regular meeting on 22 January, 1962, that the Mayor and Clerk of the City of Fayetteville be and they are hereby authorized and directed to execute in behalf of the City of Fayetteville an instrument releasing and quitclaiming any and all rights, privileges and easements which the City of Fayetteville may have by virtue of said erroneous deeds of easement."

Councilman Plummer moved that new copies of the City Code be offered to the general public for $25.00 per copy to include supplements. Motion seconded by Councilman Rose and passed.

City Manager Ray advised the Council that allocation of insurance under Public and Institutional Plan was not yet complete but would be ready by next regular meeting.
